

EARLY VOTING IS NOW!

Vote Our Future Today and Make Your Voice Heard

We know what's at stake in this election: our freedom to have a say in the decisions that impact our futures, to shine bright as our true selves, and to live in a welcoming country where everyone can thrive. Vote today and make your voice heard!

VOTE EARLY! In almost every state, you don't have to wait until Nov. 5 to cast your ballot in-person. Check your state's early in-person voting times and dates and mail-in voting requirements.

If you voted absentee or by mail, track your ballot here.

Visit vote411.org to check your voter registration status, find your polling place, learn about your ballot, and make a voting plan.

Remind 3 friends or family members to make their voting plans!

Check with your local or state election agencies for credible election information.

Some political actors may try to sow confusion and disinformation about the election, in an effort to keep us from turning out to vote. It's up to all of us to be aware of disinformation and always check trusted sources. To learn more or report disinformation, go to reportdisinfo.org.

If you experience or witness any instances of voter intimidation other irregularities at your polling place, or have problems casting your ballot, call the election protection hotline:

1-866-OUR-VOTE (English)
or 1-888-VE-Y-VOTA (Español).

Remember: our votes count! Our electoral processes are protected by many rigorous checks and balances. You have the freedom to make your voice heard by voting.

By voting, we will build a future where everyone thrives. No exceptions!

networkadvocates.org/be-a-voter